
On Bronshtein's theorem

Guy Métivier^{*1}

¹Institut de Mathématiques de Bordeaux (IMB) – CNRS : UMR5251, Université de Bordeaux
(Bordeaux, France) – 351 cours de la Libération 33405 TALENCE CEDEX, France

Résumé

Bronshtein proved the well posedness of the Cauchy problem in Gevrey spaces for weakly hyperbolic equations. It turns out that his proof implies something which is much more precise than what is usually stated.

^{*}Intervenant